Pattern No. 5928 .- Dame Fashion has created no end of pretty overblouse effects this season, but for simple beauty and style this one is sure to appeal to the women of good taste. The development was in chiffon broadcloth, and a pretty feature of the design is the slashed collar that outlines the low V-shaped neck. A broad tie of soft silk a shade or two darker than the waist, which is a light tan, is drawn through the openings and tied in front. If preferred the collar may be made plain. The sleeves are in the fashionable Mandarin style, and two deep tucks at the shoulders give the necessary fullness in front. All the materials of the season are suitable to the do. sign such as voile, cashmore, silk and cloth, For 36 inches bust measure one and three-eighths yards of 44-inch material will be required. Sizes for 32, 34, 36, 38, 49 and 42 inches bust measure.

This pattern wil' be sent to you on receipt of 10 cents. Address all orders to the Pattern Department of this paper. Be sur to give size and number of pat-tern wanted. For convenience, write your order on the following coupon:

From Spain in 1812.

Perhaps the most interesting of "sea-girt" Nantucket's almost endless chain of curiosities is the monstrous Spanish bell which adorns the Unithe South Meeting house.

Its gentle, melodious chime peals forth every hour of the day, sounds each night, gives alarm in case of fire, and for nearly a century has ed good Nantucket folk to chur Sunday mornings.

The bell was cast in Lisbon, Portugal, in 1810, by one Jose Domingues da Costa.

But there is no the purist sarcastically, "what is the record to show that it rang the same shape of fresh air?" week, on December 25, when all the world was rejoicing in the anniver sary of the birth of the Son of God, despite the inscription it bears.

The bell has a wonderfully melodious tone and many critics declare it to be the sweetest bell in Massachusetts. Many years ago a Boston gentleman visited Nantucket, and telling the islanders that the Old South church had a good clock, but needed a new bell, offered to buy their Spanish treasure.

The bell weighs 1,575 pounds, and he offered a dollar a pound for it.

The Boston man departed with the address of Jose Domingues da Costa, and from him a new bell was procured for the Old South church. William A. Starbuck of New York, a millionaire son of Nantucket, solved the perplexity of the islanders by presenting a new clock valued at $1,000 to his native town. It is still doing excellent service.

German Banks. There were 188 banks in Germany at the close of 1906, with capital of $850,000,000 and reserves of $233, 475,000.

Billions of Pins and Buttons.

Twenty billion pins and five billion buttons were produced by American factories in 1905. The United States also produced in that year 200,000,000 needles, nearly 400,000,000 safety pins Postum Cereal Co., Ltd., and 250,000,000 hairpins.

Food and Civilization. Few people realize adequately that the stomach is the greatest civilizing agency upon earth. A well-fed man, whose meals are suitably served, will rise out of barbarism with an irresistible elan.
